

LIST OF HISTORICAL PHOTOS FOR CANADIAN LAKE SUPERIOR FISHERIES

1. Fisherman, L. Superior
2. Ojibway catching whitefish with dip nets in the St. Mary's River rapids, Sault Ste. Marie, L. Superior, circa 1900 (Public Archives of Canada, PAC32664)
3. A 1900-pound haul of whitefish and lake trout caught in the St. Mary's R. Sault Ste. Marie, 1890s, L. Superior (from AE Young, 1900, The Soos of Today)
4. Michigan State Fish Hatchery, Duluth, L. Superior, 1890s (from AE Young, 1900, The Soos of Today)
5. Ontario Dept. of Lands and Forests fish hatchery at Sault Ste Marie, 1956 (Public Archives of Ontario, RG9 Series, 136, Acc. #10999, Neg. 8-H-1956)
6. East end, location unknown, L. Superior
7. East end, Tug LaPlante, location unknown, L. Superior
8. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Renner, Agawa Bay, L. Superior, 1940s
9. A. Booth and Co's station at Quebec Hbr., Michipicoten Is., L. Superior, c. 1900 (from JM Bell, 1905, Ont. Bur. of Mines, Reports, 14 (Pt. I), 278-355)
10. Pic River, L. Superior
11. Port Coldwell harbour, L. Superior. The tug "Georgina" was first operated in the 1890s by the Union Fish Co. of Port Arthur.
12. Fishing village, Jack Fish, Lake Superior, on Canadian Pacific Railway, L. Superior, c. 1911 (Public Archives Canada, PAC26018)
13. View of the town of Jackfish from the harbour, from a postcard, L. Superior, n.d. The 22-room Lakeview Hotel is on the far side of the track on the right (courtesy Peter Dahl, 8/85)
14. The Gunilda owned by oil baron William Harkness of Cleveland, Ohio, prior to sinking in 1911 near Rosspport, L. Superior
15. Steam tug, Rosspport, L. Superior, pre-1918
16. McKay's Landing (Rosspport), L. Superior, c. 1890
17. Rosspport, L. Superior, 1920s (?). The large Nipigon Bay Fish Co. sheds were those first erected by the company
18. Rosspport, L. Superior, 1940s. The Nipigon Bay Fish Co. buildings are gone and the base of operations has shifted farther east.
19. Nipigon Bay Fish Company fish shed, showing the tugs "B and B", "Rosspport" (belonging to Fred Gerow), "Christina Mac" (belonging to Charles Gerow), Rosspport, L. Superior, early 1920s
20. Filling the ice house for the Nipigon Bay Fish Co., Rosspport, L. Superior
21. Preparing the catch for shipment, Rosspport, L. Superior
22. A lake trout weighing 64 pounds dressed, with Einar Anderson, J.A. Nicol, and John Anderson, Rosspport, L. Superior

23. Felix Legault and automatic net lifter on the tug RosSPORT belonging to Fred Gerow, RosSPORT, L. Superior, 1915
24. The tug "Ester Anderson", belonging to Oscar Anderson, with Felix Legault's brother Lester on shore, RosSPORT, L. Superior, c. 1930
25. The Legault Brothers' pound net catch, RosSPORT, L. Superior
26. Catch from one of Legaults Bros.pound nets, RosSPORT, L. Superior
27. Legault Bros. fishery, RosSPORT, L. Superior
28. Bill and Mary Schelling mending 8-inch trout nets, RosSPORT, L. Superior
29. RosSPORT Annual Fish Derby, L. Superior, 1950s
30. Start of the RosSPORT Annual Fish Derby, RosSPORT, L. Superior, 1953
31. Mending gill nets, RosSPORT, L. Superior
32. Bowman Is. station, William Schelling's camp, L. Superior
33. Bowman Island station, L. Superior
34. McKay's Porphyry Is. (Walkers Channel) fishery, with Clara Thompson (Joe Boulanger's daughter), L. Superior, c. 1935 (photo courtesy Edna McKay)
35. Captain Bradbury, Welcome Islands station, Thunder Bay, L. Superior, n.d. (photo courtesy Edna McKay)
36. Fishermen's camps at Camp Bay (Silver Islet), L. Superior, c. 1935 (photo courtesy Edna MacKay)
37. Camp 5 (Squaw Bay) fishery, Sibley Peninsula, L Superior-with Joe Boulanger and Edward McKay, L. Superior, c. 1935 (photo from Edna McKay)
38. The tug "Redfox", operated by the Booth Fisheries Co. (Port Arthur) and by Frank Gerow (RosSPORT) after 1933, L. Superior
39. Gull Island, Black Bay (Silver Harbour), L. Superior, 1940s
40. Tug "Claralee", originally owned by William Schelling, RosSPORT, and in the 1980s by Kemp Fisheries, Thunder Bay, L. Superior
41. Herring catch on dock at Port Arthur, L. Superior, circa 1900. (Thunder Bay Historical Society, acc. no. 979.73.8)
42. Herring catch laid out to freeze in autumn on the CPR docks, Port Arthur, L. Superior
43. Tug breaking through ice in autumn, L. Superior
44. Net reels and tug, location unknown, L. Superior
45. Fishing nets, location unknown, L. Superior
46. Pound net fishing, location unknown, L. Superior
47. Pound net fishing, location unknown, L. Superior
48. Tug boats, location unknown, L. Superior